What can I do?

There are many great ways to combine the bus with a walk, some great views and a bite to eat. Here are three of our favourites, which all start and finish in Warkworth.

1. Ellington to Warkworth via Druridge Bay

For a spectacular ten mile route catch the X20 to Ellington at 08:50 or 09:50. From here it is possible to walk to Cresswell and then join the Northumberland Coast Path which will take you back to Warkworth. As well as being able to enjoy all of Druridge Bay you will pass through the harbour village of Amble on your way. This is a great place to stop for an ice cream before the final short stretch along the river to your finishing point.

2. Take the Coast Path from Craster

For a walk in the other direction, we suggest catching the X18 to Craster at 09:37 or 11:37 and then making your way back to Warkworth along the Northumberland Coast Path - about 13 miles in total. Along the way you will pass through the small fishing village of Boulmer. There are magnificent views all along this stretch of coast line with Alnmouth signalling you have more than surpassed the halfway point.

Here, if you haven't taken lunch with you, there are plenty of places to stop for refreshments as well as art galleries to browse. From Alnmouth it's another five miles back to Warkworth. Due to the length of this walk, even if you are planning to buy lunch it is still a good idea to take plenty of snacks and water with you.

3. Round trip to Alnwick

If the weather is not looking too great, or you don't feel like walking very far, a day trip to Alnwick is a good option. After catching the 09:37 or 10:37 bus from Warkworth to Alnwick make the most of your ticket by enjoying discounted entry at Alnwick Castle and Gardens. There is also the Bailiffgate Museum to visit as well as Barter Books, which is situated in an old train station.

Once you have finished exploring this popular old market town, head back to the bus station to catch the return bus to Warkworth. Services are twice hourly, with departures to choose from including ones at 16:13, 16:42 and 17.42.
